Other Sports Coach or Instructor is a VETASSESS Group F occupation

This occupation requires a qualification assessed as comparable to the educational level of an Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) Certificate II or higher.

Applicants can fulfil the assessment criteria for this occupation in three different ways.

*If employment is prior to the completion of the qualification at the required level, an applicant must have at least one year of highly relevant employment at an appropriate skill level within the last five years. The remaining three years of pre-qualifying period may be within the last ten years.

A positive assessment of both qualification level and employment duration is required for a positive Skills Assessment outcome.

GROUP F	Criteria for a positive Skills Assessment
	Minimum comparable Certificate II or higher AQF level	With highly relevant major field of study	Additional highly relevant qualifications*	Highly relevant employment duration
1		+		+	No additional highly relevant qualifications	+
2		+	No highly relevant major	+	No additional highly relevant qualifications	+
Pre-qualification methodology can apply to Group F occupations
	Relevant employment duration	With or without highly relevant major field of study	Additional highly relevant qualifications*	Minimum Certificate II or higher AQF level
3		+		+	N/A	+
	Within last 5 years

* Additional qualifications in a highly relevant field of study include those comparable to the following levels: AQF Certificate I.

 Highly relevant paid employment duration (20 hours or more per week) minimum one year of post-qualification employment highly relevant to the nominated occupation, at an appropriate skill level in the last five years before the date of application for a Skills Assessment.

minimum two years of employment highly relevant to the nominated occupation, completed at an appropriate skill level in the five years before the date of application for a Skills Assessment.

minimum four years of relevant employment required – three years of relevant employment (can be outside the last 5-year period) in addition to at least one year of highly relevant employment within the last five years before applying.

Qualification

AQF Certificate II or higher qualification*

This occupation requires a qualification in Sports Coaching and Development.

Highly relevant units of study may include, but are not limited to:

- Sport and Recreation Industry
- Sports Coaching and Administration
- Sport and Exercise Science
- Coaching Techniques and Strategies
- Fitness Program Development
- Sport Rules and Regulations
- First Aid
- Health and Safety Policies and Procedures
- Business Technology
- Coaching of High Performance Tennis Players
- Development of Training Programs for High Performance Tennis Players

*This includes qualifications assessed at AQF Certificate III, Certificate IV, Diploma, Associate Degree, Bachelor, Master and Doctoral level.

A positive assessment of both qualification level and employment duration is required for a positive Skills Assessment Outcome. Highly relevant employment cannot compensate for lack of a qualification at the required educational level for the nominated occupation.

Short courses or qualifications awarded after a day or a week in duration would generally not be assessed as comparable to an AQF Certificate II. The volume of learning for an AQF Certificate II requires completion typically between 6 months to a year.

For example, a 5-hour course in foundation coaching awarded by a professional organisation may be provided as additional evidence in support of an application, however it will not meet the formal educational requirement of an AQF Certificate II qualification.

Employment

Highly relevant tasks include:

- Coaching, training and instructing sportspersons by analysing performances and developing abilities;
- Planning and directing game strategies, developing play patterns and analysing game progress;
- Motivating sportspersons and supervising practice sessions;
- Recruiting players and other coaching staff;
- Arranging entries into sporting competitions;
- Promoting sports and skills development, and overseeing the participation of young people in sport;
- Officiating at sporting events to enforce rules;
- Coordinating and directing sporting activities, and liaising with other officials to interpret and enforce rules and regulations relating to sport.

Employment information

Sports Coaches are employed by sporting clubs and associations, government agencies, government funded centres (such as the Australian Institute of Sport, state, territory or regional institutes or academies of sport), holiday resorts and centres specialising in particular sports, health clubs, community institutions and educational institutions (schools and tertiary, for example). They may also be self-employed.

Employment must be highly relevant

Applicants nominating this occupation are required to specify exactly which sport they are coaching – whether from the list of ANZSCO specialisations or other.

If applicants coach more than one sport, additional evidence to support the applicant's level of professional competency and expertise in each of these areas may be required.

To receive a positive assessment outcome, applicants must be able to demonstrate they are employed and paid to coach a sport for at least 20 hours per week. For applicants who are employed on a casual or parttime basis, additional official documentation such as a summary of the number of working hours per week may be required. Applicants must be able to demonstrate that their primary engagement with their employer is for the purposes of coaching. Therefore, for applicants occupying dual roles, official contracts and /or appointment letters outlining primary tasks and working hours per week may be required.

Employment must be paid

For skills assessment purposes, full-time work is paid employment performed for a minimum of 20 hours per week. Irregular periods that average out to 20 hours per week over a year will not be considered. For example, if an applicant has worked in their nominated occupation for 12 hours per week over a three-month period, and has then worked 40 hours per week over a seven month period, only the seven-month period would be considered for skills assessment purposes.

Self-employment

If you are self-employed, you are required to provide the following:

- a) Evidence of self-employment such as sole trading or business registration details and /or official statements issued by your (registered) Accountant and /or legal team. The statement from your Accountant or Solicitor must include the Accountant's or Solicitor's letterhead, your full name, how long you have been continuously self-employed including official dates in each role, the nature of the business conducted, the signature and contact details of the Accountant or Solicitor.
- b) A statutory declaration listing your main duties during self-employment.
- c) Payment evidence showing regular income from self-employment, such as client invoices together with corresponding bank statements and /or official taxation records.
- d) Supplementary evidence, such as contracts with clients or suppliers, client testimonials, evidence of projects completed, etc.

Supporting material for assessment

Applicants nominating for this occupation are advised to provide any additional evidence to support employment claims, such as professional development certificates and/or coaching awards/achievements. Note that these will be considered as supplementary evidence only and will not substitute a formal educational qualification or highly relevant employment.
