Employment information

Generally speaking, applicants should be able to demonstrate that their role:

- Is at the level of a Manager as described in ANZSCO;
- Requires managing and controlling a specialised function within the organisation;
- Requires specialist knowledge and skills, and;
- Is not elsewhere classified in ANZSCO.

General Managers are classified elsewhere in ANZSCO.

The reporting line must clearly demonstrate the applicant's responsibilities at a strategic level with decision-making authority within the specialised function of the organisation.

While general management roles may occur in specialised and unique contexts, they are not normally considered to meet the requirements of this occupation. In order to meet the requirements, the role should involve the oversight of a specialised organisational function. Roles at managerial level in the areas of risk management and compliance may be considered against this occupation.

Not Elsewhere Classified (nec)

Some occupations assessed by VETASSESS are listed as 'nec' which means 'not elsewhere classified'. If nominating one of these occupations, you must ensure that your qualifications and employment are highly relevant to one of the occupation titles given in the ANZSCO description for the particular occupation.

Other specific occupation titles that cannot be found elsewhere in ANZSCO will be considered on a case-by-case basis as long as they are relevant to the 'nec' codes. In order to be assessed against an 'nec' code, your occupation would generally be described as non-classified, yet specialised or related to its ANZSCO Unit Group description.

Your employment in these nominated occupations should not be a closer match to another ANZSCO code (whether assessed by VETASSESS or not). When considering whether to nominate an 'nec' occupation, you should consider the sub major group description and determine whether your skills best fit this category. VETASSESS conducts a case-by-case assessment to determine whether the employment can be considered highly relevant to the classification. If an applicant's employment is highly relevant to another ANZSCO occupation, the same period of employment cannot be assessed suitably against an 'nec' classification, regardless of whether the occupation is available for migration purposes or not. Applicants should provide a cover letter that justifies the rationale for choosing an 'nec' category.

Supporting material for assessment

Applicants nominating this managerial occupation must submit an organisational chart. An organisational chart should include:

- The company letterhead,
- Your job position,
- The job position of your superiors and subordinates, as well as,
- All positions reporting to your immediate supervisor and to your direct subordinates.

If you are unable to obtain an organisational chart from your employer, please provide a statutory declaration outlining the required information and the reasons why this information cannot be provided.
