Employment information

Applicants are required to demonstrate that they are working in a niche role within a construction or engineering discipline that is not elsewhere classified in ANZSCO.

As such, this occupation covers roles that are considered to have a construction, building or engineering focus, including in specialisations that can be broadly considered under construction or build, such as aviation, shipbuilding and/or mining detailing drafting. Works undertaken in such contexts may be deemed appropriate construct and build projects for engineering purposes.

Employment that may be considered acceptable for this occupation may involve, (but is not limited to), the provision of drafting, materials testing, surveying or building-related services for such projects.

Not Elsewhere Classified (nec

Some occupations assessed by VETASSESS are listed as 'nec' which means 'not elsewhere classified'. If you are nominating one of these occupations, you must ensure that your qualifications and employment are highly relevant to one of the occupation titles given in the ANZSCO description for the particular occupation. Other specific occupation titles which cannot be found elsewhere in ANZSCO will be considered on a caseby-case basis as long as they are relevant to the 'nec' codes. In order to be assessed against an 'nec' code, your occupation would generally be described as non-classified, yet specialised or related to its ANZSCO Unit Group description.

Your employment in these nominated occupations should not better match another ANZSCO code (whether assessed by VETASSESS or not). When considering whether to nominate an 'nec' occupation, you should consider the sub major group description and determine whether your skills best fit this category.

VETASSESS conducts a case-by-case assessment to determine whether the employment can be considered highly relevant to the classification. If your employment is highly relevant to another ANZSCO occupation, that period of employment cannot be assessed suitably against an 'nec' classification, regardless of whether the occupation is available for migration purposes or not. You should provide a cover letter that justifies the rationale for choosing an 'nec' category.

Supporting material for assessment

When applying for a Skills Assessment, please ensure you submit sufficient evidence supporting your proof of identity, qualification and employment claims. Applicants nominating this occupation are required to provide evidence in line with VETASSESS documentation requirements (see List of Required Documents).

Please provide a cover letter to explain the rationale for your selection of the 'nec' category in support of your employment.

To further support your employment claims, you may also wish to provide supplementary documentation including:

- Website links related to the company
- Company Registration
- Any further online information of relevance to your work
- Completed project list
- Portfolio (no more than 5MB)
- > Any other documents relevant to your role.
